Chapter 39.

An Act Regulating the Taking of Clams in the Town of Swan's Island.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Clams not to be taken within limits of Swan's Island except by residents; exceptions. No clams shall be taken within the limits of the town of Swan's Island by any person not residing in said town where such clams are taken. This section shall not interfere with any law relating to the taking of shell fish for bait by fishermen.

Sec. 2. Penalty for violation. Whoever shall violate the provisions of section one of this act, shall for each offense, be fined not more than ten dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days.

Approved March 12, 1919.

Chapter 40.

An Act to Amend Section Four of Chapter Ninety-three of the Private and Special Laws of Eighteen Hundred and Seventy-eight, Relating to the Time of Holding the Civil Terms of the Municipal Court of the Town of Farmington.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1878, c. 93, § 4; relating to terms of Farmington municipal court, amended. Section four of chapter ninety-three of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-eight is hereby amended by striking out the words "except in September, when it shall be held on the third Tuesday," in the second and third lines of said section, so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 4. Date to be same in September as in any month. Said court shall be held on the fourth Tuesday of each month, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, for the transaction of civil business, at such place within said town as the judge shall determine, but the town may at any time provide a court room, in which case the court shall be held therein, and all civil processes shall be made returnable accordingly, and it may be adjourned from time to time by the judge, at his discretion; but it shall be considered in constant session for the cognizance of criminal actions; provided, that if said judge is prevented by any cause from attending at the time said court is to be held for civil business, it may be adjourned from day to day by a constable of the town, without detriment to any action then returnable or pending, until he can attend, when said actions may be entered or disposed of with the same effect as if it were the first day of the term; and it may be so adjourned without day when necessary, in which event pending actions shall be considered as continued, and actions then returnable may be returned and entered at the next term, with the same effect as if originally made returnable at said term.'

CHAP. 41

Approved March 12, 1919.
