Private and Special Laws

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Seventy-Ninth
Legislature

1919

election shall be called, advertised, and conducted, and voting lists prepared, corrected, and posted, according to the law relating to municipal elections in the city of Belfast. The city clerk shall prepare the ballots for such election and shall reduce the subject matter of this act to the following question: "Shall the act to incorporate the Belfast Water District be accepted?" And the voters shall indicate by a cross placed against the word, "Yes" or "No," their vote on this question. The ballots cast shall be canvassed and the result of the vote declared by the municipal officers of the city of Belfast and due certificate thereof filed by the city clerk with the secretary of state. This act shall take effect in ninety days after the final adjournment of the legislature, so far as necessary to empower the calling and holding of said special election.

Sec. 12. Certain sections inoperative unless transfer of Belfast Water Company is effected. Sections two, three and four of this act shall be inoperative, null, and void, unless the said water district shall acquire by purchase as in this act provided, the plant, property and franchises, rights and privileges now held by the Belfast Water Company.

Approved April 4, 1919.

Chapter 97.

An Act to Appropriate Moneys for the Expenditures of the Government and for Other Purposes For the Year Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the appropriation of moneys for the maintenance of the several branches of the state government, its institutions and for other purposes, is an emergency measure immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health or safety, now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. In order to provide for the several acts and resolves of the legislature requiring the payment of moneys from the state treasury, and also to provide in part for the necessary expenditures of government and for other purposes, for the current fiscal year nineteen hundred nineteen, the following sums are hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury, and except where otherwise specially provided, the governor with the advice of the council, is hereby authorized at any time prior to the first day of July, nineteen hundred and twenty, to draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the same.

Chapter 98.

An Act Relating to the Assessment of the County Taxes in the Several Counties for the Year Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the assessment of the county taxes for defraying the expenses of government of the several counties is immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and

Whereas, by revised statutes, chapter ten, section seventy-two, said county taxes are required to be apportioned by the county commissioners in March, and

Whereas, the resolve granting the county taxes was not passed in season to leave sufficient time in the month of March for making the apportionment by the county commissioners as provided by law; in the opinion of this legislature the facts above recited constitute an emergency rendering it immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety that an act should be passed extending the time for such apportionment, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Authorization for assessment of county taxes for 1919 in April. County taxes of the several counties for the year nineteen hundred and nineteen may be apportioned either during the months of March or April of said year upon the last state valuation.

Sec. 2. Emergency. In view of the emergency expressed in the preamble of this act, this act shall take effect when approved.

Approved April 4, 1919.
