Chapter 98.

An Act Relating to the Assessment of the County Taxes in the Several Counties for the Year Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the assessment of the county taxes for defraying the expenses of government of the several counties is immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and

Whereas, by revised statutes, chapter ten, section seventy-two, said county taxes are required to be apportioned by the county commissioners in March, and

Whereas, the resolve granting the county taxes was not passed in season to leave sufficient time in the month of March for making the apportionment by the county commissioners as provided by law; in the opinion of this legislature the facts above recited constitute an emergency rendering it immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety that an act should be passed extending the time for such apportionment, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Authorization for assessment of county taxes for 1919 in April. County taxes of the several counties for the year nineteen hundred and nineteen may be apportioned either during the months of March or April of said year upon the last state valuation.

Sec. 2. Emergency. In view of the emergency expressed in the preamble of this act, this act shall take effect when approved.

Approved April 4, 1919.
