Chapter 168.

Resolve, Amending Article IX of the Constitution, as Amended by Article XXXV of the Constitution, Increasing the Amount of Bonds to be Issued for the purpose of Building State Highways and Providing for the Building of Intrastate, Interstate and International Bridges.

Constitutional amendment proposed. Resolved: Two-thirds of the legislature concurring the following amendment to the constitution of the state be proposed:

Article IX, § 14, constitution amended. Section fourteen of article nine of the constitution, as amended by article thirty-five of the constitution, is hereby further amended by striking out the words "and maintaining of" in the sixth line thereof and by adding after the word "highways" in the sixth line thereof the words 'intrastate, interstate and international bridges,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 14. Provision as to maintaining state highways eliminated; intrastate, interstate and international bridges included in exceptions. The credit of the state shall not be directly or indirectly loaned in any case. The legislature shall not create any debt or debts, liability or liabilities, on behalf of the state, which shall singly, or in the aggregate, with previous debts and liabilities hereafter incurred at any one time, exceed three hundred thousand dollars, except for the purposes of building state highways,
