Chapter 179.

Resolve, Amending Section Eight of Article IX of the Constitution as Amended by Article XXXVI of the Constitution Providing for an Income Tax.

Constitutional Amendment proposed. Resolved: Two-thirds of the legislature concurring, that the following amendment to the constitution of the state be proposed:

Article IX, § 8, of the constitution; relating to taxation, amended. Section eight of article nine of the constitution as amended by article thirtysix of the constitution is hereby amended by adding to said section as amended the following words: 'and shall also have the power to lay and collect taxes on incomes from whatever source derived', so that said section as hereby further amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 8. Legislature authorized to levy tax on incomes. All taxes upon real and personal estate, assessed by authority of this state, shall be apportioned and assessed equally, according to the just value thereof; but the legislature shall have power to levy a tax upon intangible personal property at such rate as it deems wise and equitable without regard to the rate applied to other classes of property, and shall also have the power to lay and collect taxes on incomes from whatever source derived.'

Amendment to be submitted to electors at the biennial election, 1920; form of question. Resolved: That the aldermen of cities, the selectmen
