Chapter 2.

An Act to Amend Sections One and Three of Chapter One Hundred Sixteen of the Revised Statutes, Relating to Duties Payable by Public Officers.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 116, § 1; relating to duties payable by certain public officers before commission is issued, amended. Section one of chapter one hundred sixteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the word "treasurer" in the last line of said section and substituting in place thereof the word 'secretary'; so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 1. Fee to be paid to secretary of state instead of to treasurer of state. No person appointed to the office of justice of the peace, trial justice, notary public, coroner, inspector of fish, assayer of ores and metals, commissioner to take depositions and disclosures, disclosure commissioner, commissioner appointed under section twenty-four of chapter seventy-eight, and no woman appointed to administer oaths and take acknowledgments of deeds, shall enter upon the discharge of his or her official duties until he or she has paid five dollars to the secretary of state.'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 116, § 3; relating to fees payable by licensed detectives before commission is issued, amended. Section three of chapter one hundred sixteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the word "treasurer" in the second line of said section and substituting in place thereof the word 'secretary'; so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 3. Fee to be paid to secretary of state instead of to treasurer of state. Every person licensed as a private detective shall, before receiving his license, pay to the secretary of state ten dollars.'

Approved February 16, 1921.
