PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eightieth Legislature

1921

four of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, is hereby amended by striking out the word "fourteen" in the third line of said section and by inserting in place thereof the word 'sixteen' and by striking out the word "two" in the eleventh line of said section and by inserting in place thereof the word 'five,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Sec. 1. Age limit increased from 14 to 16 years and fee increased from $2 to $5. (This amendment is repealed by chap. 202.) Persons not bona fide residents of the state, and not actually domiciled therein, except children under sixteen years of age, shall not fish for, take, catch or kill any kind of fish at any time in any of the inland waters of the state, or have the same or any part thereof in possession, without first having procured a license therefor as hereinafter provided. Such licenses shall be of such form and style as may be prescribed by the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, and shall be issued by town clerks and other agents appointed by said commissioner, under such regulations as may be established by said commissioner, upon application in writing on blanks to be furnished by said commissioner and payment of a fee of five dollars and fifteen cents.'

Approved March 15, 1921.

Chapter 24.

An Act to Amend Section Fourteen of Chapter Sixteen of the Revised Statutes as Amended by Chapter Sixty-two of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, Relating to the Provisions for Heating, Lighting, Ventilating and Hygienic Conditions in New or Reconstructed School Buildings.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 16, § 14; 1917, c. 62; 1919, c. 127; relating to the approval of plans and specifications of school buildings by state superintendent of schools, amended. Section fourteen of chapter sixteen of the revised statutes as amended by chapter sixty-two of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen is hereby further amended by adding after the word "building" in the last line thereof the following: "The superintending school committee or the school building committee in charge of the erection of a new school building or of the reconstruction or remodeling of any school building as provided for by this section shall seasonably notify the state superintendent of public schools of its readiness for occupancy and shall report to the state superintendent of public schools, on blanks furnished by said state superintendent, such facts relative to the arrangement, construction or reconstruction of said building as shall indicate whether or not the proposals in the plans and specifications previously approved have been met. Whenever it shall appear to the state superintendent of public schools that such approved plans in their provisions for heating, lighting, ventilating and hygienic conditions have not been carried out, he may cause an inspection of said building to be made and shall notify said committee of changes required to be made to comply with the conditions previously approved and it shall be the duty of said committee promptly to rectify said conditions and failure so to do shall render the town liable to the provisions of section nineteen of this chapter,' so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 14. Committee in charge of construction or reconstruction of school building to notify state superintendent of its readiness for occupancy and shall report as to whether specifications required have been met; he may cause inspection to be made and may order alterations; town liable if orders are not complied with. Where the plans and specifications prepared by the state superintendent are not used, all superintending school committees of towns in which new school-houses are to be erected, shall make suitable provision for the heating, lighting and ventilating and hygienic conditions of such buildings, and all plans and specifications for any such proposed school building and plans for the reconstruction or remodeling of any school building, the expense for which shall exceed five hundred dollars, shall be submitted to and approved by the state superintendent of public schools and the state board of health before the same shall be accepted by the superintending school committee or school building committee of the town in which it is proposed to erect such building. The superintending school committee or the school building committee in charge of the erection of a new school building or of the reconstruction or remodeling of any school building as provided for by this section shall seasonably notify the state superintendent of public schools of its readiness for occupancy and shall report to the state superintendent of public schools, on blanks furnished by said state superintendent, such facts relative to the arrangement, construction or reconstruction of said building as shall indicate whether or not the proposals in the plans and specifications previously approved have been met. Whenever it shall appear to the state superintendent of public schools that such approved plans in their provisions for heating, lighting, ventilating and hygienic conditions have not been carried out, he may cause an inspection of said building to be made and shall notify said committee of changes required to be made to comply with the conditions previously approved and it shall be the duty of said committee promptly to rectify said conditions and failure so to do shall render the town liable to the provisions of section nineteen of this chapter.'

Approved March 17, 1921.
