CHAP. 34

to meet the said conditions through neglect of its superintending school committee or neglect to appropriate funds for the purpose shall be liable to the penalties of section nineteen of chapter sixteen of the revised statutes.

Approved March 17, 1921.

Chapter 34.

An Act to Amend Section Thirty-six of Chapter One Hundred and Four of the Revised Statutes, Relating to Admission to Bail.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 104, § 36; relating to admission to bail before commitment, amended. Section thirty-six of Chapter one hundred and four of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "on criminal process" in the first and second lines thereof and by inserting after the word "bailable" in the second line thereof the word 'criminal,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 36. Made to read "for a bailable criminal offense" instead of "under arrest on criminal process." Any person under arrest for a bailable criminal offense, may, before commitment to jail, if he so requests, be taken by the officer having him in charge, before such commissioner who may inquire into the case and admit him to bail. And any person arrested on the Lord's Day, or on the afternoon or evening preceding, for a bailable offense, may be admitted to bail on that day by such commissioner.'

Approved March 17, 1921.

Chapter 35.

An Act to Amend Section Fifty-five of Chapter Fifty-two of the Revised Statutes, Relating to Payments of Deposits upon Liquidation of Savings Banks.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 52, § 55; relating to powers and duties of commissioners upon the decree of sequestration of the funds of a savings bank, amended. Section fifty-five of chapter fifty-two of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding at the end of said section the following: 'provided, however, that whenever any such unclaimed fund is in an amount less than two hundred dollars, the claimant thereto may make application to any justice of the supreme judicial court who may after identification to him satisfactory, issue an order under the seal of the supreme judicial
