Chapter 68.

An Act to Amend Section Twenty-two of Chapter Five of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Compensation of Boards of Registration.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 5, § 22; relating to the compensation of members of board of registration of voters, amended. Section twenty-two of chapter five of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "compensation not exceeding five dollars a day, to" in the sixth line of said section and inserting in the place thereof the words 'such compensation as may,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 22. Provision limiting per diem to $5 repealed. The president of such board shall receive five dollars for each day that the board shall be in session for the revision and correction of the voting lists and for completing the records thereof, and the other two members of said boards shall receive four dollars a day for such time. They shall also receive such compensation as may be fixed by the city council for such time as they are necessarily employed in making up and preparing such lists of voters, together with reasonable and necessary expenses including blank books, stationery and the necessary assistance of clerks, all of which shall be paid by the city where such board is established, and each of said cities shall provide a suitable place for holding the sessions of said board, and pay for the services of such officers as said board may employ and have in attendance to preserve order and execute its precepts. All witness fees shall be paid at the established rates of fees before municipal courts.'

Approved March 30, 1921.

Chapter 69.

An Act to Establish the Fiscal Year of the State.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. State fiscal year to end June 30th. The fiscal year for all state officers, departments, boards and institutions of the state is hereby fixed to begin on the first day of July and to end on the last day of June of each year.

Sec. 2. Departments required to submit reports shall include extra six months in first report. All departments now required by law to submit an annual or biennial report shall, beginning July first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, submit such report annually or biennially as required by law for the fiscal year or years, defined above.
