Chapter 79.

An Act to Amend Section Twenty-six of Chapter One Hundred and Seventeen of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Salary of the Adjutant General.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 117, § 26; relating to the salary and clerk hire of the adjutant general, amended. Section twenty-six of chapter one hundred and seventeen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and inserting in place thereof the following:

‘Sec. 26. Salary increased and provision limiting amount of clerk hire repealed. The adjutant general shall receive an annual salary of twenty-five hundred dollars; he shall receive no other fee, emolument or perquisite.’

Approved April 1, 1921.

Chapter 80.

An Act to Amend Paragraph V of Section Fifty-five of Chapter Fifty-three of the Revised Statutes, Relating to Insurance on Glass.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 53, § 55, par. V; relating to organization, rights, privileges and purposes of insurance companies, amended. Paragraph V of section fifty-five of chapter fifty-three of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by striking out the word “plate” in the first line of said paragraph so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

‘Sec. 55. Insurance against breakage or damage to glass not limited to plate glass. Any ten or more persons, residents of the state, associated by such an agreement in writing as is hereinafter described, with the intention of constituting a corporation for the transaction of insurance business shall, upon complying with section sixty-three, become and remain a corporation with all the powers, rights and privileges and be subject to all the duties, liabilities and restrictions set forth in all the general laws relating to insurance corporations. Corporations may be organized as herein provided, upon the stock or mutual principle for the following purposes:

I. To insure against loss or damage to property and loss of use and occupancy by fire; explosion, fire ensuing; explosion, no fire ensuing; except explosion of steam boilers and fly wheels; lightning or tempest and tornadoes on land; by water and breakage or leakage of sprinklers, pumps or other apparatus erected for extinguishing fires, and of water pipes, or against accidental injury to such sprinklers, pumps or other apparatus.

II. To insure vessels, freights, goods, money, effects, and money lent on bottomry or respondentia, against the perils of the sea and other perils
