Chapter 92.

An Act to Amend Section Sixteen of Chapter One Hundred and Twenty-nine of the Revised Statutes making same Applicable to the Reformatory for Women, Reformatory for Men, State School for Girls, and State School for Boys.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 129, § 16; relating to trespass upon the grounds of the Maine school for feeble-minded, amended. That section sixteen of chapter one hundred and twenty-nine of the revised statutes be, and hereby is, amended by striking out the whole thereof and inserting the following to be known as section sixteen of chapter one hundred and twenty-nine of the revised statutes:

'Sec. 16. Made applicable to reformatory for women, reformatory for men, state school for boys and state school for girls. Whoever wilfully trespasses upon lands which belong to the state and are appurtenant to the Maine school for feeble-minded, reformatory for women, reformatory for men, state school for girls or state school for boys, or whoever shall unlawfully interfere with the inmates of either of said institutions, or after notice from an officer of said institutions to leave said lands, remains thereon, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than three months or by a fine of not more than fifty dollars.'

Approved April 1, 1921.

Chapter 93.

An Act to Amend Section Eighty-six of Chapter Two Hundred and Nineteen of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, as Amended by Chapter Two Hundred and Forty-four of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen and by Chapter One Hundred and Forty-two of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen, Relating to the Disposition of Money Collected under the Provisions of the Inland Fish and Game Laws.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 33, § 86; 1917, c. 219, § 86, c. 244; 1919, c. 142; relating to fines collected for violation of fish and game laws, amended. Section eighty-six of chapter two hundred and nineteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended by chapter two hundred and forty-four of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen and by chapter one hundred and forty-two of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and by substituting therefor the following section:

'Sec. 86. All fines and penalties to be paid to commissioner within 30 days after receipt and by him to treasurer of state, including money received for sale of seized fish or game or fur bearing animals and including fees for resident hunters; all money received for fines and penalties in excess of $50,000 to be credited to department, together with non-resident fishermen license fees and resident hunters fees. All fines and penalties recovered and money received or collected under any provision of this chapter, or amendment thereof, or for the sale of seized fish or game, or fur-bearing animals, or parts thereof, after deducting legal taxable costs, together with all fees collected under the provisions of chapter sixty-six of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen and chapter one hundred and seventy-three of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, shall be paid within thirty days by the person receiving the same to the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, at Augusta, Maine, to be paid by him to the treasurer of state. If the fines and penalties recovered and money received or collected under any provision of this chapter, or amendment thereof, after the deduction of legal taxable costs, exceeds fifty thousand dollars, any money exceeding that amount, together with all fees collected under the provisions of chapter sixty-six of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen and chapter one hundred and seventy-three of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen shall be credited to the appropriation for the operation of fish hatcheries and feeding stations for fish, for the protection of fish, game and birds, and for printing the report of the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, and other expenses incident to the administration of the department of inland fisheries and game, and shall be expended by the said commissioner for the purposes for which the above named appropriation is made. Provided, further, that if any of such fines, penalties or other moneys are not expended during the year in which they are collected, the unexpended balance shall not lapse but shall be available for the purposes herein specified until expended. Any officer or other person who shall receive any fine or penalty, or any part thereof, for the violation of any inland fish or game law, or any fees for licenses issued by virtue of this chapter, and shall neglect for more than thirty days to pay the same to the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, as herein provided, shall pay a fine of not less than fifty, nor more than one hundred dollars and costs of prosecution for each offense.'

Approved April 1, 1921.
