Chapter 105.

An Act to Amend Section Thirty-seven of Chapter Two Hundred and Nineteen of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, as Amended by Chapter One Hundred and Thirty-one of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen,, Relating to the Protection of Moose.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 33, § 37; 1917, c. 219, sec. 37; 1919, c. 131; relating to the protection of moose, amended. Section thirty-seven of chapter two hundred and nineteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended by chapter one hundred and thirty-one of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and substituting therefor the following section:

'Sec. 37. Close time on moose for a period of four years; penalty for violation; provides for importation of moose legally killed outside of state, but prohibits the sale; customs officers to issue importation license. Whoever, at any time, for a period of four years from the date this act becomes effective, hunts, pursues or kills any moose, or has in possession any part or parts thereof, whenever or wherever taken, caught or killed, shall pay a fine of not less than two hundred nor more than three hundred dollars and costs for each offense, or be imprisoned not exceeding four months or shall be subject to both said fine and imprisonment.

'Provided, however, that the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, upon application from any person who has legally killed a moose beyond the limits of this state, may issue a special importation license permitting the importation of such moose, or part thereof, for consumption or mounting within this state, under such rules and regulations as said commissioner may establish; provided, however, that no moose, or part thereof, imported
