CHAP. 111

revised statutes is hereby amended; by adding after the word "widow" in the third line thereof the word 'widower,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Sec. 1. Made applicable to widower. A judge of probate may in his discretion grant administration or administration with the will annexed, upon any estate, to the widow, widower or next of kin, without requiring bond for the faithful discharge of the duties of the trust, whenever all persons interested in said estate who are of full age and legal capacity, other than creditors, assent in writing thereto; provided that public notice shall first be given upon the petition for such appointment. The judge of probate may, however, upon or after granting letters of administration or letters of administration with the will annexed, whenever it appears necessary or proper, require that a bond be given as in other cases.'

Approved April 5, 1921.

Chapter 111.

An Act to Amend Section Eighty-five of Chapter Eighty-two of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Terms of Superior Court for the County of Kennebec.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 82, § 85; relating to terms of Kennebec superior court, amended. Section eighty-five of chapter eighty-two of revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the words "second Tuesdays of June and November" in the third line of said section and inserting in place thereof the words 'fourth Tuesday of May and the second Tuesday of November' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 85. Waterville terms changed from second Tuesdays of June and November to fourth Tuesday of May and second Tuesday of November. Said court shall be held at Augusta on the second Tuesday of January, and the first Tuesdays of April and September, and at Waterville on the fourth Tuesday of May and the second Tuesday of November; but the criminal business of said county shall be transacted at the terms held on the second Tuesday of January and the first Tuesdays of April and September, together with civil business. The judge of said court may continue any case pending in said court without costs, when in his judgment justice may require it, in order to give the parties in interest opportunity to try any such case in either Waterville or Augusta in said county.'

Approved April 5, 1921.
