PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eightieth Legislature

'Fifth: The reserved land fund, not invested, shall be set aside for loans under this section, or for any of the purposes set forth in section three, and the amount of said fund is hereby appropriated for such uses.

'Sixth: Loans shall be granted only for the purpose of assisting the borrower to erect necessary dwelling houses and farm buildings, to build silos, clear his land of forest growth, for the purchase of live stock and farm machinery, and for any other legitimate agricultural purpose, and also to refund an existing mortgage, but loans shall not be granted to refund an existing mortgage unless the borrower takes an additional amount to be expended for any purposes in this section recited, and then only when in the discretion of the commissioners such loan is advisable;

'Seventh: The borrower shall pay a charge of seven per cent per annum for the use of the loan at the expiration of one year from the date of the loan and annually thereafter so long as the loan remains unpaid, and shall assign to the state, so far as its interests may appear, any policy of insurance upon buildings on any property mortgaged under this act during the lifetime of the mortgage. All loans shall be made for a term of not less than one, nor more than twenty years, but the principal of the loan, in whole or in part, at the option of the borrower, may be paid on any interest date occurring not less than one nor more than nineteen years after the date of the loan, and in any event the whole shall be payable in twenty years, and when partial payments are made, the annual charge of seven per cent shall be made only upon the unpaid balance of the principal of the loan.'

Approved April 7, 1921.

Chapter 148.

An Act to Amend the Law Relating to Investigations in Animal Husbandry.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 34, § 16; 1919, c. 150; relating to investigations in animal husbandry, amended. Chapter thirty-four, section thirteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding to the end of said section the following: 'The experiments in animal husbandry may be conducted at any of the farms owned by the state,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 13. Investigations not confined to Maine Agricultural Experiment Station. The Maine Agricultural Experiment Station shall also conduct scientific investigations in animal husbandry, including experiments and observations on dairy cattle and other domestic animals, and such investigations shall be under the control of the director of said station. The experiments in animal husbandry may be conducted at any of the farms owned by the state.'

CHAP. 149

Approved April 7, 1921.

Chapter 149.

An Act to Amend Paragraph III of Section One of Chapter One Hundred Twenty-seven of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen, Relating to the Amount of Secondary School Tuition to be Paid in the Case of Unorganized Territory Students.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

1919, c. 127, § 1, par. III; relating to payment of tuition in secondary schools by pupils residing in unorganized territory, amended. Paragraph III of section one of chapter one hundred and twenty-seven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen is hereby amended by striking out the words "forty-five dollars annually" in the eighth line thereof and substituting therefor the words 'the same amount towns not supporting and maintaining a standard secondary school are required by law to pay annually for secondary school tuition,' so that said paragraph, when amended, shall read as follows:

'III. Amount of tuition to be the same as required of towns. Any youth who resides with a parent or legal guardian in the unorganized territory of this state and who may be judged by the state superintendent qualified to enter a secondary school may attend any such school in the state to which he may gain entrance by permission of those having charge thereof, provided said school shall be of standard grade approved by the state superintendent of public schools. In such case the tuition of said youth not to exceed the same amount towns not supporting and maintaining a standard secondary school are required by law to pay annually for secondary school tuition, shall, provided a satisfactory standard of scholarship and deportment is maintained, be paid by the state under such rules and regulations as may be made by the state superintendent.'

Approved April 7, 1921.

Chapter 150.

An Act to Authorize the Public Utilities Commission to Regulate Headlights on Electric Cars.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:
