Chapter 154.

An Act to Amend Paragraph VII of Section Ninety-eight of Chapter Four of the Revised Statutes, as Amended by Section Two of Chapter Fifty-eight, of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Seventeen, Relating to Gasoline Tanks and Pumps Placed within the Limits of Highways.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 4, § 98, par. VII; 1917, c. 58; relating to town and city ordinances in respect to locations of objects placed within the street limits by municipal authority, amended. Paragraph VII, section ninety-eight of chapter four of the revised statutes as amended by section two of chapter fifty-eight of the public laws of nineteen hundred seventeen is hereby amended by striking out in the fifth line thereof the words "gasoline or other volatile inflammable liquid for fuel or power" and inserting in place thereof, the following words: 'of petroleum products for fuel, power and lubrication,' so that said paragraph, as amended, shall read as follows:

'VII. Phraseology relative to gasoline tanks changed so as to include all "petroleum products for fuel, power and lubrication." Respecting the location and protection of monuments, boundary stones, curbstones, stepping stones or horse-blocks, trees, lamp posts, posts and hydrants, the maintenance and operation of sidewalk tanks and pumps for the sale or distribution of petroleum products for fuel, power and lubrication, supporting posts for any awning, marquee or other temporary or permanent structure over the street or sidewalk and all other things placed within the limits of their roads, ways and streets, by municipal authority and for legitimate municipal purposes; and no such objects placed as aforesaid, if located in accordance with such by-laws and ordinances, shall be deemed defects in such road, way or street.'

Approved April 7, 1921.

Chapter 155.

An Act to Amend Section Sixteen of Chapter One Hundred and Seventeen of the Revised Statutes as Amended by Chapter One Hundred and Ninety-six of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen to Increase the Salary of the State Treasurer.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 117, § 15; 1917, c. 196; 1919, c. 215; relating to salary of state treasurer and his chief clerks, amended. Section sixteen of chapter one hundred and seventeen of the revised statutes as amended by chapter one hundred and ninety-six of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen is hereby amended so that said section shall read as follows:

'Sec. 16. Treasurer's salary increased and wording of statute relative to salary of chief clerk made to conform to provisions of 1915, chap. 215. The treasurer of state shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars; he shall receive no other fee, emolument or perquisite.

'The chief clerk in the office of the treasurer of state shall be designated as "Deputy Treasurer of State" and his salary shall be fixed in accordance with chapter two hundred and fifteen, section one, of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen.'

Approved April 7, 1921.

Chapter 156.

An Act to Repeal Section Six of the Emergency Act Enacted at the Present Session of the Legislature under the Title "An Act Amendatory of and Additional to Chapter Nine of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Assessment and Payment of Excise Taxes," which has become Chapter Seventy-one of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-one.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Emergency preamble. Whereas, House document number forty-five of the present session of the legislature has been enacted into law under the title of "An Act Amendatory of and Additional to Chapter Nine of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Assessment and Payment of Excise Taxes," and,

Whereas, in its present enacted form said act contains the following section:

"Sec. 6. State and county taxes hereafter assessed upon lands in unincorporated townships, in accordance with provisions of existing law, shall be due and payable to the treasurer of state on June fifteenth, annually, and shall bear interest from that date," and,

Whereas, the members of the committee by which this act was considered and reported back to the legislature are at a loss to understand how this section was inserted in said act, and,

Whereas, it was not the intention of the members of said committee that said act should contain this section, and,

Whereas, the members of the legislature were not aware that said section was contained in this act and had no opportunity to consider its merits, and,
