CHAP 202.

Whereas, the title to said act was misleading and no opportunity was given for a public hearing, and,

Whereas, by the foregoing facts an emergency exists as is contemplated by the constitution of the state, and the passage of this act is immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. 1921, c. 57, § 1; increasing the fee for non-resident fishing licenses, amended. Section one of chapter fifty-seven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, entitled "An Act to Provide Funds for Operating the Fish Hatcheries and Feeding Stations for Fish" is hereby amended by striking out said section one and inserting instead thereof the following section:

'Sec. 1. Fee for non-resident fishing licenses fixed at $3. Persons not bona fide residents of the state, and not actually domiciled therein, except children under sixteen years of age, shall not fish for, take, catch or kill any kind of fish at any time in any of the inland waters of the state, or have the same or any part thereof in possession, without first having procured a license therefor as hereinafter provided. Such licenses shall be of such form and style as may be prescribed by the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, and shall be issued by town clerks and other agents appointed by said commissioner, under such regulations as may be established by said commissioner, upon application in writing on blanks to be furnished by said commissioner and payment of a fee of three dollars and fifteen cents.'

Sec. 2. In view of the emergency set forth in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Approved April 9, 1921.

Chapter 202.

An Act to Repeal Chapter Twenty-three of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-one, Entitled, "An Act to Amend Section One of Chapter Sixty-six of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, as Amended by Chapter Two Hundred and Forty-four of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, Relating to Non-Resident Fishing License Fees."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

1921, c. 23; increasing the fee for non-resident fishing licenses, repealed. Chapter twenty-three of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, approved March fifteenth, nineteen hundred and twenty-one and entitled "An Act to Amend Section One of Chapter Sixty-six of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, as Amended by Chapter Two Hundred and Forty-four of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, Relating to Non-Resident Fishing License Fees" is hereby repealed.

Approved April 9, 1921.

Chapter 203.

An Act to Amend Chapter One Hundred and Thirty-two of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen, Entitled "An Act to Create the Maine Water Power Commission."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. 1919, c. 132, § 1; relating to the appointment, qualification, etc. of the members of the Maine Water Power Commission, amended. Section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-two, laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, is amended by substituting in place thereof the following paragraph:

'Sec. 1. Upon expiration of term of present commission governor to appoint; legislative members not confined to 79th legislature and provision as to recommendation of president of senate and speaker of house eliminated; chairman of commission to be designated by governor. Upon the expiration of the two-year term of the commission as now provided by law the governor shall appoint ten citizens of the state as hereinafter provided, who shall constitute a commission to be known as the Maine Water Power Commission. Three of the commissioners shall be appointed with the advice and consent of the council; one commissioner shall be a present or former member of the state senate, to be appointed by the governor; two commissioners shall be present or former members of the house of representatives to be appointed by the governor; one commissioner shall be a member of the Maine State Board of Trade, to be appointed upon recommendation of said board; one commissioner shall be a member of the Maine State Grange, to be appointed upon recommendation of the said grange; one commissioner shall be a member of the Maine State Federation of Labor, to be appointed upon recommendation of the said federation, and one commissioner shall be a member of the Savings Bank Association of Maine, to be appointed upon recommendation of said association. The members of the commission shall be appointed within thirty days after this act shall take effect; they shall hold office for two years and the chairman of the commission shall be designated by the governor. Any vacancy occurring in said commission shall be filled in the same manner as by original appointment and recommendation, but such appointment shall be only for the unex-
