Chapter 4.

An Act to Amend Section Three of Chapter Ninety-nine of the Private and Special Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Fifteen, Creating the Office of Corporation Counsel of the City of Portland.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. and S. L., 1915, c. 99, § 3; relating to the duties of the corporation counsel of the City of Portland, amended. Section three of chapter ninety-nine of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred fifteen is hereby amended so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 3. Salary to be fixed by city council; minimum limit, $2500 a year. Said corporation counsel shall be furnished a suitable office in the city hall. He shall give his entire time, during the hours when other offices in said city hall are open for the transaction of the city's business on secular days, to the duties of his office, and shall receive such salary as the city council shall determine, but said salary shall be not less than twenty-five hundred dollars per annum, payable in twelve equal monthly installments, together with an allowance for clerk hire, the amount to be fixed by the city council.'

Approved March 1, 1921.

Chapter 5.

An Act to Ratify, Confirm and Make Valid the Doings of the Old Folks Home, in Bath, and the Home for Aged Couples and Old Men, in Consolidating the Homes for the Aged Maintained by them Severally.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Consolidation of Bath Old Folks Home and Home for Aged Couples and Old Men made valid. All the corporate acts and proceedings of the Old Folks Home, in Bath, and all the corporate acts and proceedings of the Home for Aged Couples and Old Men, done, transacted and performed in effecting the consolidation and union of the homes for the aged formerly maintained by each of said corporations, severally; and all grants, conveyances, assignments and transfers of its properties and funds, real and
