indebtedness necessary to carry out these purposes, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge or otherwise;

(12) To carry on any lawful business anywhere, excepting the business of banking, insurance, savings banks, trust companies, or of corporations intended to derive profit from the loan or use of money, or of safe deposit companies, including the renting of safes in burglar-proof and fire-proof vaults. Provided, that the construction and operation of railroads, or aiding in the construction thereof, telegraph or telephone companies, and gas or electrical companies are to be carried on only in states and jurisdictions when and where permissible under the laws thereof;

(13) In carrying on its business, or for the purpose of attaining or furthering any of its purposes, the corporation may do any and all acts and things, and exercise any and all powers which a natural person could do and exercise, and which now or hereafter may be authorized by law, and in any part of the world; and in addition the corporation shall have and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges now or hereafter belonging to or conferred upon corporations organized under the provisions of law authorizing the formation of such corporations;

(14) The foregoing clauses shall be construed both as purposes and powers, but no recitation, expression or declaration of specific or special purposes or powers herein enumerated shall be deemed to be exclusive; but it is hereby expressly declared that all other lawful powers not inconsistent therewith are hereby included.

Approved March 10, 1921.

Chapter 20.

An Act to Amend and Extend Chapter Forty of the Private and Special Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Eleven, Entitled "An Act to Authorize the Improvement of Fall Brook in the Towns of Bingham and Brighton."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. and S. L., 1911, c. 40, § 1; authorizing Solon Lumber Company to maintain dams, etc., on Fall Brook at Bingham and Brighton, amended. Section one of said act is hereby amended by adding in the fifth line before the word "Bingham" the word 'Solon', so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 1. May maintain dams at Solon. The Solon Lumber Company, a corporation duly established by law at Solon in the county of Somerset, and its assigns are hereby authorized to build dams, side dams, piers and booms, and to maintain the same, on Fall Brook and its tributaries in the towns of Solon, Bingham and Brighton in the county of Somerset; to remove rocks and trees and to excavate ledges therefrom; and to widen, deepen and otherwise improve the same for the purpose of raising a head of water and of making said brook and its tributaries floatable to facilitate the driving of logs, pulp wood, and other lumber on the same.'

Sec. 2. P. and S. L., 1911, c. 40, § 4; relating to the tolls that may be demanded by the Solon Lumber Co. for the passage of logs, pulp wood, etc., over its dams, amended. Section four of said act is hereby amended by striking out the word "fifteen" in the third line and inserting the word 'fifty', and striking out the word "eight" in the fourth line and inserting the words 'twenty-five', so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 4. Amount of tolls increased. Said corporation and its assigns may demand and receive a toll for the passage of logs, pulp wood and other lumber over their improvements of fifty cents per thousand feet for logs and lumber and twenty-five cents per cord for pulp wood; and shall have a lien thereon for the payment of said toll with all costs and charges, but the logs, wood and lumber of each owner shall only be holden for the amount due from him. Unless said toll is paid within twenty days after said logs, pulp wood or other lumber, or the major part thereof, passes the south line of the town of Bingham, said lien may be enforced by attachment and suit to be begun within ninety days after the same shall have passed the south line of said Bingham.'

Approved March 10, 1921.

Chapter 21.

An Act to Amend an Act Entitled "An Act to Incorporate the Knox Woolen Company."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. and S. L., 1868, c. 432, § 1; relating to the incorporation of the Knox Woolen Company, amended. Section one of chapter four hundred and thirty-two of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight is hereby amended by striking out all of said section after the words "Knox Woolen Company" in the fifth line thereof and substituting in place thereof the following:

'With an authorized capital stock of one million dollars to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, with the right by that name to sue and defend suits and to have and use a common seal, and with the privileges and powers and subject to all the duties and liabilities provided by
