taries in the towns of Solon, Bingham and Brighton in the county of Somerset; to remove rocks and trees and to excavate ledges therefrom; and to widen, deepen and otherwise improve the same for the purpose of raising a head of water and of making said brook and its tributaries floatable to facilitate the driving of logs, pulp wood, and other lumber on the same.'

Sec. 2. P. and S. L., 1911, c. 40, § 4; relating to the tolls that may be demanded by the Solon Lumber Co. for the passage of logs, pulp wood, etc., over its dams, amended. Section four of said act is hereby amended by striking out the word "fifteen" in the third line and inserting the word 'fifty', and striking out the word "eight" in the fourth line and inserting the words 'twenty-five', so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 4. Amount of tolls increased. Said corporation and its assigns may demand and receive a toll for the passage of logs, pulp wood and other lumber over their improvements of fifty cents per thousand feet for logs and lumber and twenty-five cents per cord for pulp wood; and shall have a lien thereon for the payment of said toll with all costs and charges, but the logs, wood and lumber of each owner shall only be holden for the amount due from him. Unless said toll is paid within twenty days after said logs, pulp wood or other lumber, or the major part thereof, passes the south line of the town of Bingham, said lien may be enforced by attachment and suit to be begun within ninety days after the same shall have passed the south line of said Bingham.'

Approved March 10, 1921.

Chapter 21.

An Act to Amend an Act Entitled "An Act to Incorporate the Knox Woolen Company."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. and S. L., 1868, c. 432, § 1; relating to the incorporation of the Knox Woolen Company, amended. Section one of chapter four hundred and thirty-two of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight is hereby amended by striking out all of said section after the words "Knox Woolen Company" in the fifth line thereof and substituting in place thereof the following:

'With an authorized capital stock of one million dollars to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, with the right by that name to sue and defend suits and to have and use a common seal, and with the privileges and powers and subject to all the duties and liabilities provided by the laws of this state concerning manufacturing corporations, and with authority to purchase and hold real and personal estate, and to improve, lease, sell, convey and otherwise manage and dispose of the same as other owners of real and personal estate may do; and with authority to manufacture and sell yarns, paper makers' felts and textile goods of every description and composed of any and all kinds of materials in the town of Camden, in said Knox County, or elsewhere should occasion require; said corporation to have its principal office or place of general business in said Camden, and to have authority to exercise any of the powers conferred by this act, or other laws of this state, when twenty thousand dollars of the capital stock shall be taken and paid for, and with authority to make all necessary regulations and by-laws for transacting the business of the corporation not repugnant to the laws of this state,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 1. Capital stock increased. Andrew Fuller, Albert Johnson, Horatio Alden, David Knowlton, C. G. Bachelder, W. G. Adams, Johnson Knight, Henry Knight and T. R. Simonton, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate by the name of Knox Woolen Company, with an authorized capital stock of one million dollars to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, with the right by that name to sue and defend suits and to have a common seal, and with the privileges and powers and subject to all the duties and liabilities provided by the laws of this state concerning manufacturing corporations, and with authority to purchase and hold real and personal estate, and to improve, lease, sell, convey, or otherwise manage and dispose of the same as other owners of real and personal estate may do; and with authority to manufacture and sell yarns, paper makers' felts, and textile goods of every description and composed of any and all kinds of materials in the town of Camden, in said Knox County, or elsewhere, should occasion require; said corporation to have its principal office or place of general business in said Camden, and to have authority to exercise any of the powers conferred by this act or other laws of this state, when twenty thousand dollars of the capital stock shall be taken and paid for, and with authority to make all necessary regulations and by-laws for transacting the business of the corporation not repugnant to the laws of this state.'

Approved March 10, 1921.
