An Act to Repeal the Act Incorporating the Town of Concord and Providing for the Organization of the same into a Plantation, to be known as Concord Plantation.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. & S. L., 1821, c. 22; 1860, c. 380; relating to the incorporation of the town of Concord, repealed, provisionally. So much of the act entitled, "An act to incorporate the town of Concord," passed January twenty-five, eighteen hundred and twenty-one, being chapter twenty-two of the private and special laws of Maine, as was not affected by an act entitled, "An act to set off a part of the town of Concord and annex the same to Pleasant Ridge plantation," approved February nine, eighteen hundred and sixty, being chapter three hundred and eighty of the private and special laws of Maine, is hereby repealed; provided, however, that the corporate existence, powers, duties and liabilities of said town shall survive in so far as may be necessary for the purposes of prosecuting and defending all pending actions and causes of actions to which said town of Concord is or may become a party and for the service of any process arising from such actions or causes of actions; and for the further purposes of settlement of all claims and demands and the satisfaction of any judgment which may be recovered in favor of or against said town of Concord.

Sec. 2. Organized into a plantation. The territory comprised within the limits of the said town of Concord, as now constituted, is hereby organized into a plantation to be known as Concord Plantation, and said plantation is hereby authorized to take and hold all properties and all the assets and to assume all the liabilities of said town of Concord; and for the accomplishment of the purposes of this section said plantation, through its treasurer, is further authorized to issue, under the supervision of the commissioners of the county of Somerset and with such restrictions as the law may require, its corporate notes or bonds to enable it to liquidate forthwith such liabilities as it may be compelled to assume in complying with the provisions of this act.

Sec. 3. Subject to local referendum. This act shall not take effect until it shall have been accepted by a majority vote of the legal voters within said town of Concord at its annual meeting to be held in March, nineteen hundred and twenty-two. The result in said town of Concord shall be declared by the selectmen and a due certificate thereof filed by the town or plantation clerk with the secretary of state within thirty days from the date of said town meeting.
