Approved March 22, 1921.

Chapter 93.

An Act to Incorporate the Telephone Workers Credit Union of Maine.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Corporators, name and purposes. Leon Weir, Fred J. McLaugh and Lester C. Ayer, all of Portland, E. K. Bly of Lewiston and Fred C. Scribner, of Bangor, their associates and successors are hereby created a body corporate under the name of Telephone Workers Credit Union of Maine, for the purpose of receiving deposits from its shareholders and lending to its shareholders or investing such deposits and the amounts paid for shares of its capital stock; and by that name may sue and be sued; may have a common seal, adopt by-laws and regulations for the management of its affairs not repugnant to this charter and the laws of this state; and may purchase, hold and convey all such property, real and personal, as may be deemed necessary for the use or accommodation of the business of the company, and generally do and perform any and all legal acts incident to similar corporations.

Sec. 2. Location. The company shall be located in, and its principal office shall be in, Portland in the County of Cumberland and State of Maine. There may be also agencies in such other places within the state as the bank commissioner may approve and the board of directors may determine.

Sec. 3. Shareholders and capital stock. The capital stock shall be one hundred thousand dollars. No person, unless employed in the telephone business, shall become or continue to be a shareholder and the by-laws of the corporation shall, subject to the approval of the bank commissioner, contain provisions to carry into effect this section. Shares of capital stock may be subscribed and paid for in such manner as the by-laws may prescribe except that the par value of shares shall not exceed five dollars. No person shall own more than five hundred shares.

Sec. 4. Officers, how chosen, tenure, duties, etc. All the corporate powers of this corporation shall be exercised by a board of directors, who shall be shareholders and a majority of whom shall be residents of this state and who shall be elected by the shareholders. Their number and
