Private and Special Laws

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eightieth
Legislature

1921

Sec. 3. Stray logs to be turned out on demand of owners; stray logs coming into boom after general sorting shall be held until next drive or sorting. Any stray logs or pulp wood not belonging to said Orono Pulp and Paper Company found in the booms aforesaid, shall be turned out by said Orono Pulp and Paper Company at its expense on written demand from the owners thereof. If any stray logs come into the confines of the booms and piers constructed under this act after the general sorting and turning out of said logs said Orono Pulp and Paper Company shall hold said logs in a careful manner until the next drive or sorting.

Sec. 4. State may take over property and franchises. The State of Maine reserves the right to acquire by proper legislation and through such agencies as it may establish for the purpose the whole or any portion of the rights and franchises hereby granted and the whole or any portion of the structures erected by authority of this act, upon payment of just compensation to the owners thereof; but such just compensation shall not include the value of the franchises granted by this act.

Approved March 30, 1921.
