Chapter 132.

An Act Authorizing Elliottsville Plantation to Build and Maintain its Roads and Bridges, and to Raise Money for the Same.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Municipal officers of Elliottsville plantation given same authority as municipal officers of towns in regard to roads. The municipal officers of Elliottsville plantation in the County of Piscataquis, are hereby given all the powers of municipal officers of towns to lay out, alter, widen or repair public or private ways within said plantation, and to assess and expend such sums of money as the plantation may at its annual meeting raise therefor, in all respects as the municipal officers of towns may do; and so far as applicable the provisions of chapter twenty-four of the revised statutes shall apply to laying out, extending, altering or repairing public or private ways in said plantation; and all the powers which towns now have to raise and expend money for the purpose of making and repairing ways, building bridges, and paying officers and agents, are hereby extended to said plantation.

Approved April 6, 1921.

Chapter 133.

An Act to Incorporate the Howland Sewerage and Water District.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Territorial limits, corporate name and purposes. That part of the territory in the Town of Howland, in the County of Penobscot, embraced within the limits described as follows: Beginning at the south bank of the Run-Round, so-called, in said Town of Howland at the point of juncture where said Run-Round leaves the west bank of the Penobscot river; thence in a straight line from said point of juncture to the northeast corner of the Piscataquis River Lot numbered 24, as shown in R. Gilmore's survey of the Town of Howland, recorded in Penobscot Registry of Deeds in Plan Book Number One; thence in a straight line by the north boundary line of said lot numbered 24 to a point in the east bank of the Piscataquis river where said boundary line meets said east bank; thence crossing said Piscataquis river in a straight line from said last mentioned point to a point on the west bank of the Piscataquis river, which latter mentioned point is the point on said west bank of said Piscataquis river where the boundary line between Piscataquis River Lots numbered 21 and 22 (according to said Gilmore's survey) touches said west bank of the Piscataquis river at the shore thereof; thence in a straight line by and on said boundary line to its southerly end between said lots numbered 21 and 22; thence
