the County of Cumberland, upon warrants drawn by the county commissioners of said county. The salary of said assistant probation officer shall be one thousand dollars per year, payable monthly in equal instalments by the county treasurer under the same conditions as is provided for the payment of the salary of the probation officer.

When a person has been placed on probation the court may direct and authorize the probation officer to expend for the temporary support of such person, or for his transportation, or for both such purposes such reasonable sum as the court shall consider expedient and any sums so expended, together with actual disbursements for necessary expenses made by said probation officer while in the performance of his duty, shall be reimbursed to him out of the county treasury of the County of Cumberland after approval by the recorder of said municipal court when said expenditure was made by order of the judge of said court, or, in his absence, the recorder, or when said duties were performed on account of said municipal court, and by the clerk of said superior court when the expenditure was made by order of the judge thereof, or when said duties were performed on account of said superior court, provided that said officer shall not be allowed in all for such disbursements exclusive of said expenditures made by special order of said courts, a greater sum than three hundred dollars in any one year.'

Approved April 9, 1921.

Chapter 154.

An Act Amending the Private and Special Laws of Eighteen Hundred and Eighty-five, Relating to the Charter of the People's Ferry Company.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1885, c. 495, § 11; 1919, c. 94; authorizing the city of Portland to raise money to assist in defraying expenses of People's Ferry at Portland, amended. Section eleven of chapter four hundred and ninety-five of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-five, as amended by chapter ninety-four of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "may" in the first line thereof, the word 'annually,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 11. Authorizing the appropriation to be made annually. The City of Portland may annually raise a sum not exceeding ten thousand dollars for the following purposes: To aid in defraying the expenses of securing adequate transportation service for passengers, freight, and vehicles by the People's Ferry Company or any other ferry line, steamboat line or powerboat line, making landings at Portland and any of the islands of Casco bay, and for such purposes the City of Portland may enter into such contracts as the city council may determine.'

Approved April 9, 1921.

Chapter 155.

An Act to Amend Chapter Seventy-seven of the Resolves of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-one, Entitled "A Resolve in Favor of Several Acadmies, Institutes, Seminaries and Colleges for Maintenance, Repairs and Improvements."

Emergency preamble. Whereas, a resolve passed by this legislature and signed by the governor, to wit, a resolve in favor of the several academies, institutes, seminaries, and colleges for maintenance, repairs and improvements, has been found to contain serious errors and omissions by reason of which it fails to conform to the legislative intention, and

Whereas, the immediate passage of such legislation in a form to express the real intention of the legislature is immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and

Whereas, the foregoing facts in the opinion of this legislature constitute an emergency within the meaning of the constitution of this state, now therefore

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Res. 1921, c. 77, in favor of academies, seminaries and improvements, repealed and re-enacted in correct form. Chapter seventy-seven of the resolves of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, being a resolve in favor of several academies, institutes, seminaries and colleges for maintenance, repairs and improvements, is hereby amended by adding after the title and before the word "Resolved" an emergency preamble as follows:

'Whereas, the amounts named in the following resolve are for the use and benefit of the various small academies and schools within the State of Maine and are immediately necessary for the use of said school, and

Whereas, it is necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety that said sums be immediately available for use of said schools and academies, and

Whereas, the foregoing facts constitute an emergency within the meaning of the constitution of this state,' and by striking out the figures "1500" after the word repairs in the twenty-third line of page three of said resolve and inserting in place thereof the figures '1000,' so that said resolve shall read as follows:
