Chapter 157.

An Act Relating to Martin's Point Bridge, So-called, in the County of Cumberland, and Amending Section Two of Chapter Eighty-nine of the Private and Special Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen.

Emergency preamble. Whereas the draw in Martin's Point bridge, so-called, has been found to be unsafe and must be immediately rebuilt, and whereas for the protection of travelers over the same, it has been found necessary to construct temporary supports under said draw thereby preventing the free use of the waterway thereunder, and said waterway is thereby obstructed, and it is imperative that said draw be reconstructed at once, and whereas in the judgment of the legislature this fact creates an emergency within the meaning of section sixteen of article thirty-one of the constitution of Maine, and requires the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of public peace, health, and safety, now therefore

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Cumberland County Commissioners authorized to reconstruct Martin's Point bridge. The county commissioners of Cumberland county are hereby authorized to repair or reconstruct such portions of Martin's Point bridge, so-called, including the draw therein, as may in their judgment be necessary to make and maintain said bridge
