OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-First Legislature

1923

[supplied from page 1 of volume]

CHAP. 14

dissolution, amended. Section eighty-nine of chapter fifty-one of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the word "such" in the seventh line thereof and by inserting after the word "given" in the eighth line thereof the words 'by the clerk of courts to the attorney general and such notice shall be given to others,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 89. Clerk of courts to give notice of bill to attorney general. Except where otherwise provided by statute, whenever at any meeting of its stockholders, legally called therefor, such stockholders vote to dissolve such corporation, a bill in equity against the same for dissolution thereof, may be filed by any officer, stockholder or creditor in the supreme judicial court, in the county in which it has an established place of business, or in which it held its last stockholders' meeting; upon said bill, notice shall be given by the clerk of courts to the attorney general and such notice shall be given to others as may be ordered by any justice of said court, in term time or vacation, and upon proof thereof, such proceedings may be had according to the usual course of suits in equity, that said corporation shall be dissolved and terminated. Upon proof that there are no existing liabilities against said corporation, and no existing assets thereof, requiring distribution among the stockholders, said court may dissolve said corporation without the appointment of trustees or receivers.'

Approved February 22, 1923.

Chapter 14.

An Act to Amend Section Seventy-two of Chapter Two Hundred and Eleven of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-one, Relating to the Penalty for Reckless Driving, Going Away without Stopping after an Accident, and Using Motor Vehicles without Authority.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1921, c. 211, sec. 72; relating to penalty for reckless driving, amended. Section seventy-two of chapter two hundred and eleven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, is hereby amended, by striking out the word "fifty" in the seventh line thereof and inserting in place thereof the words 'two hundred,' also by striking out the words "one hundred" in the tenth line thereof and inserting in place thereof the words 'not less than two hundred dollars and not more than five hundred'; and adding to said section the words 'or both,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 72. Maximum fine increased from $50 to $200; second offense penalties increased. Whoever operates a motor vehicle upon any way recklessly, so that lives or safety of the public are in danger, or upon a bet, wager or race, or for the purpose of making a record, thereby violating the speed regulations, or whoever goes away without stopping and making himself known after causing injury to any person or property, or uses a motor vehicle without authority from its owner, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or by both fine and imprisonment; and if any person be convicted the second time for a violation of this section, he shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars and not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.'

Approved February 22, 1923.

Chapter 15.

An Act to Amend Section Thirty-two of Chapter Two Hundred and Nineteen of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, as Amended by Chapter One Hundred and Seventy-four of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen, and Chapter One Hundred and Seventy-eight of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-one, Relating to the Pollution of Certain Waters with Sawdust and Other Mill Waste.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1917, c. 219, sec. 32; P. L., 1919, c. 174; P. L., 1921, c. 178; relating to deposit of sawdust and other mill waste in lakes and streams, amended. Section thirty-two of chapter two hundred and nineteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended by chapter one hundred and seventy-four of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen and chapter one hundred and seventy-eight of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "Piscataquis," in the thirty-seventh line thereof the words 'Main stream, a tributary to Great Moose lake, in Hartland and Harmony, said Main stream being situated in the Counties of Penobscot, Piscataquis and Somerset, or in any of the tributaries to said Main stream,' and by striking out the words "Ellis stream, in Waldo, Brooks and Belfast," in the fortieth and forty-first lines of said section, and by inserting in place thereof the words 'Passagassawaukeag river, or any of its tributaries, in the County of Waldo,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 32. Main stream, tributary to Great Moose lake, and any tributaries to Main stream; Passagassawaukeag river and tributaries in Waldo County, added. Ellis stream in Waldo County stricken out. No person or corporation shall place or deposit in any of the lakes or ponds of the state, or into any of the following named rivers, brooks and streams, to wit: in Aroostook county, the Aroostook river or any of its tributaries above the mouth of Beaver brook, in Sheridan plantation, except sawdust made by gang saws, main rotaries, up and down saws in water mills in use prior to nineteen hundred and three; Fish river and all of its tributaries
