uary first of said year a fee of one dollar for which he shall receive a registration card, which card shall be placed beside or attached to the certificate above mentioned,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 60. Veterinary practitioners must pay an annual fee of $1.00 for registration card. The board of veterinary examiners shall issue certificates signed by the president and secretary, to all persons passing the examination required under the preceding section, authorizing the holder to practice veterinary surgery, medicine, or dentistry, or any branch thereof, within the state. Said certificate shall be considered a license to practice veterinary surgery, medicine, or dentistry in this state, except that it shall be unlawful for any person to practice veterinary surgery, medicine, or dentistry in this state in any year after the year in which said certificate is issued to him unless he shall pay to the treasurer of the state board of veterinary examiners on or before January first of said year a fee of one dollar for which he shall receive a registration card, which card shall be placed beside or attached to the certificate above mentioned. Said certificate shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the supreme judicial court in the county wherein the holder resides at the time of passing said examination, and in the absence of the original certificate an attested copy of such record shall be received as evidence in all courts within the state, of the right of the person therein named to practice veterinary surgery, medicine or dentistry, or any branch thereof, within the state. Any veterinarian, not a graduate of some legally chartered veterinary college or university, desiring to render professional service for the State of Maine, in any of its departments, shall at the request of the live stock sanitary commissioner, submit himself to an examination before said board as to his fitness to perform the service.'

Approved March 10, 1923.

Chapter 39.

An Act to Amend Section Thirty-five of Chapter Forty-four of the Revised Statutes as Amended by Chapter Sixty-seven of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-one, Relating to Licenses for Lightning Rod Agents.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 44, sec. 35; 1921, c. 67; relating to agent's license for sale of lightning rods, amended. Section thirty-five of chapter forty-four of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter sixty-seven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, is hereby further amended by striking out the words "one year from date of issue" in the eleventh and twelfth lines thereof and inserting in place thereof the following: 'until the thirty-first day of December following the date of issue,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

CHAP. 40

'Sec. 35. License expires with the calendar year. Upon written notice from a manufacturer licensed under the preceding section, of the appointment of a suitable person, who must be a resident of the state, to act as his agent in this state, and upon the presentation of a certificate of the good reputation and moral character of such person, signed by the mayor or selectmen of the city or town of which he is a resident, the insurance commissioner may, if he is satisfied that the appointee is a suitable person and a resident of this state, issue to him a license as such agent. For the purposes of this act "such agent" shall be construed to mean the duly licensed resident of this state who purchases, sells and installs such lightning rod material. Such license shall continue in force until the thirty-first day of December following the date of issue, but may be revoked at any time by the insurance commissioner for good cause, after a hearing.'

Approved March 13, 1923.

Chapter 40.

An Act to Amend Section One of Chapter Eighty-two of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Supreme Judicial Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 82, sec. 1; relating to constitution of S. J. court, amended. Section one of chapter eighty-two of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "justices" in the second line thereof the words, 'and such active retired justices as may be appointed and serving on said court,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 1. Active retired justices may be members of court. The supreme judicial court shall consist of a chief justice and seven associate justices, and such active retired justices as may be appointed and serving on said court, learned in the law and of sobriety of manners, who shall be conservators of the peace throughout the state, and may act in any case, although the county in which they reside or own property is interested therein.'

Approved March 14, 1923.

Chapter 41.

An Act to Amend Section Forty-five of Chapter One Hundred Seventeen of the Revised Statutes, Relating to Clerk Hire in the Office of Clerk of Courts in Androscoggin County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 117, sec. 45; 1921, c. 219; relating to clerk hire in county offices,
