Chapter 75.

An Act to Amend Paragraph IX of Section Six of Chapter Ten of the Revised Statutes, as Amended by Chapter One Hundred Five of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Nineteen, as Further Amended by Chapter One Hundred Nineteen of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred Twenty-one, Relating to Exemption from Taxation of the Estates of War Veterans.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 10, sec. 6, par. IX; 1919, c. 105; 1921, c. 119; relating to exemption from taxation of estates of war veterans. Paragraph IX of section six of chapter ten of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter one hundred five of the public laws of nineteen hundred nineteen, as further amended by chapter one hundred nineteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred twenty-one is hereby further amended as follows: by inserting after the word "pension" in the seventh line of said paragraph IX the following: 'the polls of all disabled veterans of the World War, namely, soldiers, sailors, and marines, who are receiving compensation or vocational training from the United States government on account of disabilities incurred in or aggravated by service in the World War,' so that said paragraph, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Disabled war veterans receiving compensation or vocational training, exempt from poll tax. IX. The polls and the estates of persons who by reason of age, infirmity or poverty, are in the judgment of the assessors unable to contribute toward the public charges; the polls of all soldiers and sailors who served in the army or navy of the United States in the war of eighteen hundred sixty-one and five, and were honorably discharged from such service; the polls of all soldiers, sailors and marines who receive state pension; the polls of all disabled veterans of the World War, namely, soldiers, sailors, and marines, who are receiving compensation or vocational training from the United States government on account of disabilities incurred in or aggravated by service in the World War; and the estates to the value of five thousand dollars of all soldiers, sailors
