Chapter 80.

An Act to Amend Section Nineteen of Chapter Ninety-eight of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-one, Relating to Suspension and Revocation of Lobster Licenses.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1921, c. 98, sec. 19; providing for use of lobster licenses by agent of licensee, amended. Section nineteen of chapter ninety-eight of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one is hereby amended by striking out the words "be employed by another or" and the words "lobster business" in the eleventh line, and inserting after the word "the" in the eleventh line the words 'catching of lobsters,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 19. In case license is revoked, licensee prohibited from assisting in catching lobsters. If any person, firm, or corporation to whom such license shall be granted shall be incapacitated for any reason, except for the violation of the laws of the state relating to the lobster industry, from using said license, said person, firm or corporation may permit his agent or employee, if a citizen of this state, to perform such duties under the license as may be necessary during the period of his or its incapacity; provided that said agent or employee shall, when performing said duties so licensed, exhibit upon demand of any authorized person, the certificate issued to his superior, as provided in the preceding section. No person whose license has been revoked or suspended shall assist in the catching of lobsters in any way. Every person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall upon conviction be subject to the fines and penalties provided in section seventeen.'

Approved March 22, 1923.

Chapter 81.

An Act to Amend Section Thirty-six of Chapter Two Hundred and Nineteen of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, as Amended by Chapter One Hundred and Ninety-six of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen, Relating to the Protection of Caribou.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1917, c. 219, sec. 36; 1919, c. 196; relating to protection of caribou, amended. Section thirty-six of chapter two hundred and nineteen, of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended by chapter one hundred and ninety-six, of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following paragraph:

'Provided, however, that the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, upon application from any person who has legally killed a caribou beyond the limits of this state, may issue a special importation license permitting the importation of such caribou or part thereof for consumption or mounting within this state under such rules and regulations as the commissioner may establish. Provided, however, that any caribou or part thereof imported by virtue of this act shall not be sold or offered for sale at any time and provided, further, that said commissioner shall appoint the customs officials or other persons along the Maine boundary to issue the importation licenses above named,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 36. Commissioner may issue importation license for caribou legally killed outside of state; caribou imported not to be sold. Whoever, at any time, hunts, pursues, or kills any caribou, or has in possession any part or parts thereof, whenever or wherever taken, caught or killed, shall pay a fine of two hundred dollars and costs for each offense, or be imprisoned not exceeding four months, or shall be subject to both such fine and imprisonment.

Provided, however, that the commissioner of inland fisheries and game upon application from any person who has legally killed a caribou beyond the limits of this state may issue a special importation license permitting the importation of such caribou or part thereof for consumption or mounting within this state under such rules and regulations as the commissioner may establish. Provided, however, that any caribou or part thereof imported by virtue of this act shall not be sold or offered for sale at any time and provided, further, that said commissioner shall appoint the customs officials or other persons along the Maine boundary to issue the importation licenses above named.'

Approved March 22, 1923.

Chapter 82.

An Act to Amend Chapter Three, Section Thirty-one, of the Revised Statutes, Relating to Printing and Binding of Reports of Certain State Departments

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 3, sec. 31; relating to printing and binding of department reports, amended. Section thirty-one of chapter three of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the whole of said section and inserting in place thereof the following:

'Sec. 31. Number of reports printed not to exceed 1,000 copies, except commissioner of agriculture, 1,500 copies; 50 copies to be retained for public documents; 250 copies to be delivered to state librarian. The number of copies of the following named reports to be printed hereafter at
