its name and adopt a new one; and when the proceedings of such meeting relating to such change of name certified by the clerk thereof, are returned to the office of the secretary of state to be recorded by him, the name shall be deemed changed; and the corporation, under its new name, has the same rights, powers and privileges, and is subject to the same duties, obligations and liabilities as before, and may sue and be sued by its new name; but no action brought against it by its former name, shall be defeated on that account, but on motion of either party, the new name may be substituted therefor in the action; provided, that whenever any corporation, required by law to make returns to any official or department of the state, shall change its name under the general laws of the state, or under any special act of the legislature, such change shall not take effect and such new name shall not be used until said corporation shall have filed with said official or said department a certified copy of the vote of the corporation relative thereto. A certificate of the change of name of a corporation shall be filed by the clerk of the corporation in the registry of deeds of the county, in which the corporation has its location, within twenty days after the proceedings of the meeting are returned to the office of the secretary of state.

Approved March 24, 1923.

Chapter 90.

An Act Relating to the Distribution of the Assets of an Insolvent Estate.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Unclaimed money ordered paid over by decree of judge of insolvency to be paid to county treasurer. If any sum of money directed by a decree heretofore made, or hereafter made, by the judge of the insolvency court to be paid over, whether dividend or otherwise, remains for six months unclaimed, the assignee who was ordered to pay over the same, shall pay such sum of money to the treasurer of the county in which the insolvency court has jurisdiction, who shall give a receipt therefor, specifying the amount, name of estate and name of person entitled thereto, which said receipt shall be filed in the insolvency court and allowed as a sufficient voucher therefor.

Sec. 2. Provisions of R. S., c. 70, sec. 24, applicable. The provisions of section twenty-four of chapter seventy of the revised statutes shall, so far as applicable, apply to such deposits.

Sec. 3. Act applies to pending cases. The provision of this act shall apply to pending cases.

Approved March 24, 1923.
