CHAP. 141

may perform all the duties required of the attorney-general by chapter fifty-one and such other duties as the attorney-general may require of him. The attorney-general may also appoint such assistant attorneys-general as the duties of the office may require with such powers and duties as he may delegate. The compensations of the deputy attorney-general and any assistant attorneys-general appointed, shall be fixed by the attorney-general with the approval of the governor and council, but such compensations shall not in the aggregate exceed the amount appropriated therefor. The attorney-general shall biennially designate one of the assistant attorneys-general to assist the members of the legislature in the drafting of acts and resolves. Such assistant attorney-general shall devote all his time during the legislative session to this work, but shall not receive extra compensation therefor. The attorney-general shall also instruct one of his assistant attorneys-general to devote his entire time to the enforcement of the inheritance tax law and the salary and expenses of such assistant attorney-general shall be paid from the appropriation for salaries and clerk hire of said department.

Sec. 2. Inconsistent acts repealed. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved March 31, 1923.

Chapter 141.

An Act Additional to and Amendatory of Chapter Two Hundred and Eleven of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-one, Relating to Lights on Motor Vehicles.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. L., 1921, c. 211, sec. 99; renumbered sec. 100. Section ninety-nine of chapter two hundred and eleven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one is hereby renumbered to become section one hundred.

Sec. 2. P. L., 1921, c. 211; amended by adding new sec. 99. Chapter two hundred and eleven of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one is hereby amended by adding thereto the following section, to be numbered section ninety-nine:

'Sec. 99. Provisions governing use of front lights on motor vehicles used for fire fighting purposes, eliminated. The provisions of this chapter, governing the equipment or use of front lights on motor vehicles, shall not apply to motor vehicles owned or controlled by municipalities or village corporations, and used for fire fighting purposes.'

Approved March 31, 1923.
