CHAP. 164

States circuit court in this state. One copy of the laws passed by each session of the legislature shall be sent to each member and officer thereof.

Upon request of the administrative officer thereof one copy of any future compilation or revision of the statutes or of the laws passed by any legislature shall be given to each state department or institution. One copy shall also be sent to each town or city in which there is a free public library, if so requested by the selectmen of the town or the mayor of the city.

The remaining copies of the laws shall be held in the library for exchange or sale.

Sec. 3. Existing statutes modified. This act shall take the place of all heretofore existing provisions of law relating to the distribution of Maine Reports, revised statutes or laws.

Approved April 4, 1923.

Chapter 164.

An Act Relating to the Incontestable Clause in Life Insurance Policies.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

'Life insurance policies incontestable after two years; exceptions. That the policy of insurance together with the application and the medical examination therefor, a copy or photograph of which application without the medical examination shall be endorsed upon or attached to the policy and made a part thereof, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable after it shall have been in force during the life time of the insured for two years from its date, except for non-payment of premiums and except for violations of the policy relating to the naval or military service in time of war and at the option of the company provisions relative to benefits in the event of total and permanent disability and provisions which grant additional insurance specifically against death by accident may also be excepted.'

Approved April 4, 1923.
