Chapter 188.

An Act to Amend Section Twenty-one of Chapter One Hundred and Twenty-seven of the Revised Statutes, as Amended by Chapter Two Hundred and Thirty-five of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Nineteen, Relating to Intoxicating Liquors.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 127, sec. 21; P. L., 1919, c. 235; relating to sale of intoxicating liquors and defining term, amended. Section twenty-one of chapter one hundred and twenty-seven of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter two hundred and thirty-five of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, is hereby further amended, by striking out the words "a percentage of alcohol, which by federal enactment, or by decision of the supreme court of the United States, now or hereafter declared, renders a beverage intoxicating," in the sixth, seventh and eighth lines thereof, and inserting in place thereof the words 'one-half of one per cent of alcohol by volume,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 21. Any beverage containing one-half of one per cent alcohol declared intoxicating. No person shall at any time, by himself, his clerk, servant or agent, directly or indirectly, sell any intoxicating liquors, of whatever origin; wine, ale, porter, strong beer, lager beer and all other malt liquors, and cider when kept or deposited with intent to sell the same for tipping purposes, or as a beverage, and all distilled spirits, as well as any beverage containing one-half of one per cent of alcohol by volume, are declared intoxicating within the meaning of this chapter; but this enumeration shall not prevent any other pure or mixed liquors from being considered intoxicating.'

Approved April 4, 1923.
