port into this state or from place to place therein contrary to law, any intoxicating liquor in any automobile, truck, wagon, boat, vessel or vehicle of any kind, not a common carrier, without the consent in writing to such transportation signed by the owner thereof and also by the mortgagee thereof and also by all parties to any agreement by which said automobile, truck, wagon, boat, vessel or vehicle is to remain the property of the seller until paid for, whether said agreement is or is called a note, lease, conditional sale, purchase on instalments or by any other name or in whatever form it may be, and also by all other persons who have any right, title and interest in such automobile, truck, wagon, boat, vessel or vehicle, shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars and costs, and in addition thereto shall be imprisoned not less than six months, nor more than two years, and in default of payment of fine and costs, shall be imprisoned six months additional, and such sentence shall be additional to any other sentence imposed for any other offense committed by such person.'

Approved April 5, 1923.

Chapter 205.

An Act to Constitute the State Superintendent of Schools a Member, Ex-officio, of the Board of Trustees of the University of Maine.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

State superintendent of public schools ex-officio member of board of trustees of University of Maine. As the state is providing large appropriations for the support of the University of Maine, the state should have a more direct connection with its affairs both financial and educational, therefore, it is provided that the state superintendent of public schools shall be ex-officio a member of the board of trustees of the University of Maine with all of the powers and privileges of members and that his membership on said board shall be coetaneous with his term of office as state superintendent of public schools.

Approved April 4, 1923.

Chapter 206.

An Act to Amend Section Twenty-two of Chapter One Hundred Twenty-seven of the Revised Statutes, as Amended by Chapter Two Hundred Ninety-one of the Public Laws of Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen, Relating to the Sale of Intoxicating Liquor.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 127, sec. 22; P. L., 1917, c. 291; providing penalties for selling intoxicating liquors in violation of law, amended. Section twenty-two of
