Private and Special Laws

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-First
Legislature

1923

CHAP. 63

Sec. 2. Funds received from sale to be permanent "temperance fund"; how disbursed. Funds received from the sale of said property shall be deposited in the town treasury of Dexter to be invested by said trustees and to be called the temperance fund, to which donations may be added from time to time by other parties. The town of Dexter shall be responsible for the safe custody of the funds. The income from such fund shall be paid semi-annually to the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Dexter, or its successors, for use in the promotion of the cause of temperance.

Approved March 16, 1923.

Chapter 63.

An Act Relating to Taking of Clams in Machiasport.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Limited to Residents. It shall be unlawful for any person not a resident of the town of Machiasport, in the county of Washington, to dig clams for commercial purposes within the limits of said town.

Sec. 2. Non-residents may dig clams for bait or home consumption; limit one bushel. Persons not residents of the town of Machiasport may be permitted to dig for clams for fish bait or home consumption within the limits of said town; provided, however, that no person shall dig for purposes mentioned in this section during any one day more than one bushel of clams.

Sec. 3. Penalty for violation. Whoever violates the provisions of sections one and two of this act shall for each offense be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days.

Approved March 16, 1923.

Chapter 64.

An Act to Amend the Act of Incorporation of the Trustees of Fryeburg Academy in the Town of Fryeburg and County of Oxford.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Preamble. Whereas, by the act of incorporation of said trustees of Fryeburg Academy, enacted by the general court of the commonwealth of Massachusetts, on the ninth day of February, seventeen hundred and ninety-two, it was therein provided that the trustees thereof shall be "capable of having, holding and taking in fee simple by gifts, grants, devise or otherwise, any lands, tenements or other estate, real or personal, provided the annual income of the same shall not exceed one thousand pounds, and shall apply the rents, issues and profits thereof in such manner as that the design of the institution of the academy may be most effectually promoted," and also further provided

"that the number of said trustees and their successors shall not at any one time be more than thirteen nor less than nine, seven of whom shall constitute a quorum for transacting business, and a majority of members present at a legal meeting, shall decide all questions proper to come before the trustees; that a major part shall be laymen and reputable free-holders; also that a major part shall consist of men that are not inhabitants of the town where the seminary is situated,"

Act of incorporation amended. Now, therefore, said act of incorporation is hereby amended by striking out the first paragraph above recited and inserting in place thereof the following:

'Amount of property which may be held by trustees fixed. That the trustees thereof shall be capable of having, holding and taking in fee simple by gifts, grants, devise or otherwise, any lands, tenements or other estate, real or personal, provided the annual income of the same shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars, and shall apply the rent, issues and profits thereof in such manner as that the design of the institution of the academy may be most effectually promoted,' and by striking out the second paragraph above recited and inserting in place thereof the following:

'Trustees may be free-holders of either sex. That the number of said trustees and their successors shall not at any one time be more than thirteen nor less than nine, seven of whom shall constitute a quorum for transacting business, and a majority of members present at a legal meeting shall decide all questions proper to come before the trustees; that a major part shall be men and women and reputable free-holders; also that a major part shall consist of men and women that are not inhabitants of the town where the seminary is situated.'

Approved March 16, 1923.

Chapter 65.

An Act to Provide for the Better Protection of Clams Within the Limits of the Town of Roque Bluffs.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Limited to residents. It shall be unlawful for any person not a resident of the town of Roque Bluffs in the county of Washington to dig clams for commercial purposes within the limits of said town.
