by the laying out of highways under the general law. Said bridges shall forever thereafter be a free public bridge, and shall be maintained and kept in repair as now provided by law for bridges built by municipalities upon public highways or county ways.

Approved April 4, 1923.

Chapter 114.

An Act to Allow the Town of Forest City to Hold Its Annual Town Meeting for the Year Nineteen Hundred Twenty-three in the Month of April, Instead of in March, as Required by Law.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, it is impossible to hold a legal annual town meeting for the year nineteen hundred twenty-three, in the month of March, in the town of Forest City, because of the fact that at the meeting which was called for March twenty-six, a sufficient number of voters were not present and therefore it was impossible to hold a legal meeting in the month of March,

Whereas, if a town meeting is not held no money can be raised to carry on the affairs of the town for the ensuing municipal year, and

Whereas, in the judgment of the legislature these facts create an emergency within the meaning of section sixteen of article thirty-one of the constitution of the State of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Authorized to hold annual town meeting, 1923, in April. The inhabitants of the town of Forest City, in the county of Washington, are hereby authorized and empowered to hold their annual town meeting on any Monday in the month of April, in the year nineteen hundred twenty-three, instead of in March as required by statute, and said meeting, if held in April, shall be of the same effect and validity as if held in the month of March.

Sec. 2. Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble this act shall take effect when approved.

Approved April 5, 1923.

Chapter 115.

An Act to Change the Name of Rattlesnake Pond in the Town of Brownfield to Lane Pond.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Name Rattlesnake pond changed to Lane pond. The name of Rattle-
