use, or for use by such public utility for the furtherance of the purposes of this act, and acts amendatory thereof and additional thereto, of any facilities within the charge of said directors or for the joint use thereof.

'Authorized to file complaints against public utilities within certain limits. The said directors shall have the right, in accordance with the procedure prescribed in chapter fifty-five of the revised statutes and acts amendatory thereof and additional thereto, to file complaint against any public utility or public utilities engaged within the territorial limits of the municipalities of Portland and South Portland in the transportation of property delivered or destined for delivery at or routed over the property of the state of Maine at the port of Portland, within the jurisdiction of said directors, representing in such complaint that said public utilities have failed to agree upon joint use of the facilities described in section forty-two of said chapter fifty-five belonging to them or either of them, and by such complaint to invoke the jurisdiction conferred in such cases by said section forty-two upon the public utilities commission upon its own motion or upon complaint of any public utility affected; and said commission may, in accordance with the procedure and conditions prescribed by said section, issue any order for such joint use by said public utilities and prescribe the compensation, terms and conditions therefor as if said proceeding had been initiated upon its own motion or upon complaint of any such public utility.'

Approved April 5, 1923.
