field, Massachusetts; said building to be known as the state of Maine building, and to be designed and constructed for the purpose of exhibiting the products of Maine farms and its industries, and the advertising of its possibilities vacationally and in all other respects. The said appropriation is conditioned upon the raising of a like sum of twenty-five thousand dollars independent of this appropriation, and its payment to the treasurer of the state of Maine, on or before the last day of December, nineteen hundred and twenty-four. Said sum of fifty thousand dollars is to be expended in the erection and completion of said building under the direction of a committee consisting of the following:—one member recommended by the Associated Industries of Maine, another member recommended by the executive committee of the Maine Federation of Agricultural Associations, a third member recommended by the Maine Publicity Bureau, a fourth member to be the commissioner of agriculture, and a fifth member to be recommended by the publicity committee of the Maine legislature, each member of said committee to be appointed by the governor and council, one for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of five years, from the date of his appointment, and thereafter, at the expiration of the term of any member of said committee, his successor is to be appointed for a term of five years, and in each instance is to be some citizen of Maine recommended by the same group from which the retiring member was chosen. This committee shall have full charge of the erection and completion of said state of Maine building and after its completion full charge of its operation and management. Said building is to be erected upon a lot of land to be deeded to the state of Maine by said Eastern States Agricultural and Industrial Exposition, Inc., and no work upon said building is to be begun until such deed has been passed. The committee above referred to shall serve without compensation, except that each member thereof shall be paid actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties as a member of said committee.

(Passed over Governor's veto, March 23, 1923.)
