Chapter 54.

Resolve, for the Laying of the County Taxes for the Year Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-three.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the several counties hereinafter named have certain expenses and liabilities which must be met as they become due, and such counties have no source of revenue except the taxes herein mentioned, therefore, the appropriations called for in this resolve are immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and in the judgment of this legislature these facts constitute an emergency as contemplated by the constitution, be it, therefore,

County taxes 1923. Resolved: That the sum annexed to the counties
