or kill any kind of fish in Coburn pond or in Daymond pond in Moose River Plantation; or in Cold Stream pond or in Long pond in Cold Stream township and in Parlin Pond township, so-called; or in Gander Brook pond, or in Ronco pond, or in Smith pond or in Burnt Land pond in Dennistown plantation; or in Campbell pond, situated on Kelly Gore, so-called; or in Cape Horn pond in Prentiss township, all of which waters are in the county of Somerset, after June first of each year. It shall be lawful to fish, in said waters as provided by the general law of the state, during open season provided by the general law after said June first of each year, in the ordinary way of angling with unbaited artificial flies or fly fishing, so-called.

It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any kind of fish taken in violation of any provision of these regulations.

Sec. 2. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten dollars nor more than thirty dollars and costs for each offense and an additional penalty of one dollar for each fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 3. Jurisdiction granted to trial justices, police and municipal courts. Trial justices, police and municipal courts, within their respective counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial court and superior courts in all prosecutions arising under this act.

Sec. 4. Inconsistent acts, rules and regulations repealed. All acts or parts of acts, or rules and regulations of the Department of Inland Fisheries and Game, promulgated in accordance with law, inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved March 14, 1925.

Chapter 14.

An Act to Amend Section One of Chapter One Hundred and Forty-seven of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the State Board of Charities and Corrections.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 147, sec. 1; relating to appointment, qualification, tenure of office, etc., of members of board of charities and corrections, amended. Section one of chapter one hundred and forty-seven of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out all of said section one and substituting therefor the following:

'Sec. 1. Per diem of $5.00 provided for members of board when engaged in official duties. Appointment of president and secretary of board made obligatory. The state board of charities and corrections, as heretofore established, shall consist of five persons, at least one of whom shall be a woman, appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for terms of five years. Any vacancy occurring during a term shall be filled in like manner for the remainder of the unexpired term. The board shall be non-partisan politically. The members shall each receive five dollars a day for their services while employed on official duties, and their actual travelling expenses, which shall be audited by the state auditor and paid by the treasurer of state, upon the certificate of the state auditor, as provided by law. Regular meetings of the board shall be held quarterly, or oftener, if required, and a suitable room shall be provided in the state house for its use. The board shall elect from their number a president, who shall hold office for such term as shall be fixed by the board, shall appoint a secretary and agents, all subject to approval and removal by the governor, and make such rules and orders for the regulation of its proceedings as it may deem necessary. All rules and regulations governing the administration of state institutions must be approved by the board, and no superintendent, agent or other under-official shall have any discretionary power to change such rules and regulations.'

Approved March 14, 1925.

Chapter 15.

An Act Relating to Hunting in Certain Specified Localities in the State of Maine.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1917, c. 219, sec. 77; relating to hunting in certain specified limits prohibited, amended. Section seventy-seven of chapter two hundred and nineteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen is hereby amended by striking out the words "situated in the town of Eden, in the county of Hancock: Bounded on the north and east by the Atlantic ocean, on the south by the highway leading from Hull's Cove bridge to the Beaver dam bridge near Shea Brothers' farm, and on the west by the highway leading from said Beaver dam bridge to Salisbury cove; or" in the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth lines of the first paragraph of said section, and by striking out the words "on said island or" in the second line of the second paragraph of said section, so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 77. Restrictions removed from certain territory in town of Eden,
