Chapter 34.

An Act to Amend Section Forty-eight of Chapter Twenty-four of the Revised Statutes, Relating to the Powers and Liabilities of Plantations.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 24, sec. 48; relating to liabilities and powers of plantations in opening of ways, amended. Section forty-eight of chapter twenty-four of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and substituting in place thereof the following:

'Sec. 48. Scope enlarged so as to include all plantations. Organized plantations have like powers and are subject to like liabilities and penalties as towns respecting ways. Their assessors have like powers and shall perform like duties, as municipal officers of towns, respecting them.'

Approved March 23, 1925.

Chapter 35.

An Act to Create a Game Sanctuary, in Knox County, to be Known as the Knox County Game Preserve.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Game sanctuary in Knox county established for period of four years; limits defined. For a period of four years from the time this act takes effect, no person shall, except as hereinafter provided, at any time, hunt, pursue, shoot at or kill any wild animal or any game or wild bird, within the following described territory, situated in the city of Rockland and towns of Thomaston, Warren and Rockport, in the county of Knox, known as the Burnt Land or Bog, which territory is bounded and described as follows: Beginning at Willis Corner, so-called, on the Beechwood's road; thence westerly by the Warren Highland road to the Oyster River bridge; thence north following the course of the Oyster river to the Warren, West Rockport road; thence by said road and the Beechwood's road, easterly and southerly to Willis Corner at the point of beginning, containing approximately six thousand five hundred acres. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any wild animal or any game or wild bird or part thereof taken in violation of any provision of this act. Provided, however, that it shall be lawful to hunt foxes and rabbits in the above described territory during the open season on the same as now or hereinafter provided by law, but no person shall kill in any one day more than two rabbits within the limits of said sanctuary.
