sion of licenses, certificates and permits, amended. Section seventy-two of chapter two hundred and nineteen of the public laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, as amended by chapter one hundred and ninety-six of the public laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and by substituting therefor the following section:

'Sec. 72. Scope broadened so as to include all classes of licenses; license may be re-issued after a period of six months. If the holder of any license, certificate or permit issued by the department of inland fisheries and game, or authority thereof, or by any clerk of a city, town or plantation, on blanks furnished by the Commissioner of Inland Fisheries and Game, as provided by law, is charged with having violated or countenanced the violation of any inland fish or game law, the Commissioner may, at his discretion, temporarily suspend such license, certificate or permit, and whenever the holder of such license, certificate or permit, as provided in this section, is convicted of any violation of any inland fish or game law, said Commissioner may, at his discretion, cancel such license, certificate or permit and strike his name from the official record, but such license, certificate or permit may again be issued at the discretion of the Commissioner, after the expiration of six months. Any license, certificate or permit suspended or cancelled by virtue of this section shall be immediately returned to the Commissioner under a penalty of fifty dollars for refusal or neglect to comply with this requirement.

'If any applicant for any kind of a license, certificate, or permit to be issued by the department of inland fisheries and game, or by any clerk of a city, town or plantation, on blanks furnished by the Commissioner of Inland Fisheries and Game, as provided by law, makes a false statement in order to secure such license, certificate or permit, he shall be subject to a penalty of fifty dollars and costs for each offense and in addition thereto be imprisoned not exceeding three months.'

Approved March 27, 1925.
