Chapter 73.

An Act Relating to the Payment of Interest on Matured Shares in Loan and Building Associations.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1923, c. 144, sec. 105; relating to payment of matured shares in loan and building associations, amended. Section one hundred and five of chapter one hundred and forty-four of the public laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-three is hereby amended by striking out the word "five" in the fifth line of said section, and inserting in place thereof the words 'not less than five nor more than six,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 105. Minimum and maximum rate of interest fixed. When each unpledged share of a given series reaches the value of two hundred dollars, all payment of dues thereon shall cease, and the holder thereof shall be paid out of the funds of the association, two hundred dollars therefor, with interest at the rate of not less than five nor more than six per cent a year from the time of such maturity to the time of payment; provided, that at no time shall more than one-half of the funds in the treasury be applicable to the payment of such matured shares, without the consent of the directors, and that before paying matured shares, all arrears and fines shall be deducted. Every share shall be subject to a lien for the payment of any unpaid dues, fines, interest, premiums and other charges received thereon, which may be enforced in the manner hereinafter provided. Any association may permit the holders of matured shares issued on the serial
