Chapter 79.

An Act Relating to Fishing in Upper Taylor Brook and Tributaries and in the East Branch and West Branch of Passadumkeag Stream and Brown Brook in Penobscot and Hancock Counties.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Perpetual closed time for fishing in Upper Taylor brook, and other waters in Penobscot and Hancock counties, established. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, catch or kill any kind of fish at any time in Upper Taylor Brook, which brook is situated wholly or partly in Lakeville Plantation, in Township Number Three, Range One, in the county of Penobscot, and in Township Number Four, Hancock County; or in the East Branch, so-called, of Passadumkeag Stream; or in the West Branch, so-called, of Passadumkeag Stream; or in Brown Brook, so-called, in the county of Penobscot. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any kind of fish taken in any of the above named waters.

Sec. 2. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than thirty dollars and costs for each offense, and an additional penalty of one dollar for each fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession, in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 3. Jurisdiction granted to trial justices, police and municipal courts. Trial justices, police and municipal courts, within their respective counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial court and superior courts in all prosecutions arising under this act.

Approved March 27, 1925.
