fourteen thereof and reading as follows: 'Provided, however, that any person not holding a state certificate may be granted not more than one temporary non-renewable teaching permit for a period not to exceed one year, such permit to be issued upon examination by the superintendent of schools of the town in which such person is employed and the form of such permit, indicating the grade of school for which it is to be issued, shall be prepared by the state superintendent of public schools and shall be furnished by him upon application of the superintendent of schools of any town. No person shall be eligible to a teaching permit unless he shall meet the requirements of section one hundred and twenty-eight in relation to age and educational preparation,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 130. Provision for temporary teaching permit, eliminated. No persons shall be employed to teach in any school under the supervision and control of any school board of any city, town or plantation of this state, who does not hold a state certificate as herein provided. Provided, further, that all state certificates heretofore granted shall continue in force in accordance with the terms stated therein. The state superintendent of schools is hereby authorized to formulate all rules and regulations necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of this section and of the four preceding sections.'

Approved March 28, 1925.

Chapter 94.

An Act Relating to Taking Herring in the Sheepscot River.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 45, sec. 48; relating to rules governing sale and packing of herring, amended. Section forty-eight of chapter forty-five of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "state" in the fourteenth line the following: 'except in so much of Sheepscot bay as is comprised within the following lines. Beginning at the northerly point of Green island, thence southerly by the coast line to the Cuckolds light station, thence westerly to Pond Island light station, thence northeasterly by the coast line to the northerly point of MacMahan island, thence easterly to the point of beginning,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 48. Provision relating to use of artificial light or torches eliminated, in certain waters of Sheepscot bay. Whoever takes, preserves, sells or offers for sale between the first day of December and the fifteenth day of the following April, any herring for canning purposes less than eight inches long, measured from one extreme to the other, or packs or cans sardines of any description, between the first day of December and the fifteenth day of the following April, forfeits twenty dollars for every hundred cans so packed or canned, and for every hundred herring so taken. All cans shall be decorated, stamped or labeled with quality, packer's name and place of business, or merchant's name for whom the same are packed, except sardines packed in plain cans and shipped for buyers' labels or cartons. Whoever sells or offers for sale any sardines in cans not so decorated or labeled, shall forfeit one dollar for every can so sold or offered for sale, to be recovered by complaint, indictment or action of debt. No person shall use in the herring fishery, in any of the waters of this state except in so much of Sheepscoot bay as is comprised within the following lines: beginning at the northerly point of Green island, thence southerly by the coast line to the Cuckolds light station; thence westerly to Pond Island light station, thence northeasterly by the coast line to the northerly point of MacMahan island, thence easterly to the point of beginning, torches or any artificial light, of any kind, for the purpose of catching herring, under a penalty of ten dollars for each offense. The commissioner of sea and shore fisheries shall insist upon the strict observance of the provisions of this section and enforce the penalties for violation thereof.'

Approved March 28, 1925.

Chapter 95.

An Act to Require the Teaching of American History and Civil Government in the Public and Private Schools.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1921, c. 25; (R. S., c. 16, sec. 122); relating to the duties of the commissioner of education, amended. Paragraph seven of chapter twenty-five of the public laws of nineteen hundred twenty-one is hereby amended by inserting after the words "civil government" in line eighteen thereof the words, 'including the constitution of the United States,' so that the paragraph, as amended, shall read as follows:

Constitution of the United States to be taught in common schools.
 'VII. To prescribe the studies to be taught in the public schools and in private schools approved for attendance and tuition purposes, reserving to superintending school committees, trustees or other officers in charge of such public or private schools the right to prescribe additional studies, and the course of study prescribed by the state superintendent of public schools shall be followed in all public schools and in all private schools approved by the state superintendent for attendance or tuition purposes;
