CHAP. 108

'Seventh: Minimum sizes may be designated by figures instead of words. The word "minimum" may be designated by using the abbreviation "min."

'Eighth: No shipment, consignment or lot of apples in closed packages shall be condemned without examination of at least five per cent of the packages in such shipment, consignment or lot. Any shipment, consignment or lot in which five per cent of the packages are found to contain fruit below the grade marked on the container may be condemned by the commissioner of agriculture or his authorized deputies. No closed package of apples shall be considered below grade unless five per cent of the fruit contained therein is below the grade marked on the outside of the container.'

Approved April 2, 1925.

Chapter 108.

An Act to Regulate Fishing in East Stream, So-called, in Washington County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Closed time for fishing for five years in East Stream, established. For a period of five years from the time this act becomes effective, it shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, catch or kill any kind of fish at any time in East stream, so-called, which stream is situated in the towns of Cutler, Whiting and Trescott, in the county of Washington. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any kind of fish taken in violation of any provision of this section.

Sec. 2. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten dollars nor more than thirty dollars, and costs, for each offense, and an additional penalty of one dollar for each fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 3. Jurisdiction granted to trial justices, police and municipal courts. In all prosecutions arising under this act, trial justices, police and municipal courts, within their respective jurisdictions, shall have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial court and the superior courts.

Approved April 2, 1925.
