Chapter 126.

An Act Relating to Old, Diseased or Disabled Animals.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 126, sec. 60; relating to proceedings for destroying old, diseased and disabled animals, amended. Section sixty of chapter one hundred and twenty-six of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "fixed" in the sixth line of said section the words, 'If the owner cannot be found by reasonable diligence or is out of the state, although resident therein, a copy of such application and order of court shall be left at his last and usual place of abode,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Sec. 60. If owner of animal cannot be found service may be made by leaving copy of court order at last and usual place of abode. Such officer or agent may take possession of any old, maimed, disabled, diseased or injured animal, and apply to any municipal or police court or trial justice for process to cause the same to be destroyed. If the owner is known, a copy of such application shall be served upon him in hand with an order of court to appear at a time and place named, to show cause why such
