PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-second Legislature

1925

[supplied from page 1 of volume]

Chapter 161.

An Act Relating to the Taking of White Perch in Certain Waters in Washington and Kennebec Counties.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Open time for white perch fishing in Crawford lake, established. So much of the existing laws, whether public or private and special, as prohibits taking white perch at any time in Crawford lake and in the tributaries to said lake, in the county of Washington, and the shipment and sale of said white perch within and without the state, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 2. Open time for white perch fishing in lake Cobbosseecontee, established. So much of the existing laws, whether public or private and special, as provide for a closed season on white perch in lake Cobbosseecontee, in the county of Kennebec, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. Daily limit under general law not affected. This act shall not be construed as repealing that portion of the existing general law establishing a daily limit of fifteen pounds of white perch or not exceeding twenty-five white perch which may be taken in any one day in said waters.

Approved April 7, 1925.

Chapter 162.

An Act Relating to Fishing in Certain Waters in Franklin and Oxford Counties.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Night fishing in certain waters in Oxford county, prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to fish for, take, catch or kill any fish at any time in upper and lower Richardson lakes, and all their tributaries, or in Rapid river between lower Richardson and Umbagog lakes, or in Pond-in-the-River, so-called, in said Rapid river, all of which waters are in the county of Oxford, except between sunrise and one half hour after sunset of each day.

Sec. 2. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten dollars nor more than thirty dollars and costs for each offense, and a further penalty of one dollar for each fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of this act.

Approved April 7, 1925.
