Chapter 170.

An Act Relating to Motions for New Trials.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 87, sec. 57; relating to motions to set aside verdicts on report to full court, amended. Section fifty-seven of chapter eighty-seven of the revised statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

'Sec. 57. Evidence in rebuttal or impeachment of motions founded on newly discovered evidence to be taken out and signed by justice or certified by stenographer. When a motion is made in the supreme judicial court to have a verdict set aside as against law or evidence, a report of the whole evidence shall be signed by the presiding justice or authenticated by the certificate of the official court stenographer. When the motion is founded on any alleged cause not shown by the evidence presented at the trial, the testimony in support of the allegations of the motion and in rebuttal or impeachment may be taken out and a report of the same, together with that presented at the trial, shall be signed by the justice or authenticated by the certificate of the official court stenographer, and the case shall be marked "Law." When the law court is of the opinion that any such motion is frivolous or intended for delay it may award double or treble costs.'

Approved April 7, 1925.

Chapter 171.

An Act Relating to a Lien for Repair and Storage of Vehicles.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 96, sec. 56; relating to liens on vehicles, amended. Section fifty-six of chapter ninety-six of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding after the word "vehicle" in the third line thereof, the words 'or provides storage therefor,' and by adding after the word "labor" in
