Chapter 206.

An Act to Provide for an Assistant County Attorney for the County of Androscoggin. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Provision for assistant county attorney of Androscoggin county; duties; salary; term of office. The county attorney of the county of Androscoggin may appoint an assistant, to be approved by the justice of the superior court for said county. Said assistant shall take the oath prescribed for county attorneys; and assist the county attorney in the ordinary duties of his office, in the drawing of indictments, in the hearing of complaints before the grand jury, and in the preparation and trial of criminal causes. He shall, when directed by the county attorney, act as counsel for the state in the trial of complaints, before judges of municipal and police courts and trial justices. Said assistant county attorney shall receive an annual salary of eight hundred dollars payable from the state treasury in monthly payments on the last day of each month. The assistant county attorney shall hold his office during the term of the county attorney by whom he was appointed, subject to removal at any time by the justice of the superior court for said county.

Approved April 11, 1925.

Chapter 207.

An Act Relating to Amateur Boxing Contests.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 125, sec. 4; relating to participation in prize fights; provisions not to apply to certain boxing contests; conditions of such contests; amateur boxing contest, defined. Section four of chapter one hundred and twenty-five of the revised statutes shall not apply to amateur boxing contests of not more than four rounds of three minutes each, in which new six-ounce gloves are used which have not been broken, or tampered with by pushing back the padding from the knuckles of said gloves, and where there is not more than five pounds difference in the weight of the contestants and where contestants have had a rigid physical examination by a reputable physician just prior to said contest and said physician certifies that each of said contestants is in good physical condition. Decisions may be given in such amateur boxing contests conducted by organizations incorporated under section one of chapter sixty-two of the revised statutes as amended, provided the receipts from such amateur boxing contests are to be paid into the treasury of such organization or to some public charity. For the purposes of this act an amateur boxing contest is a contest between
